One of the better intro to government books available. This was easy to follow and while it may seem juvenile I like all of the colors and infographics that this had. The price here on Prime was very fair also.

Pages are numbered weird, in multiples of 8. No page 12, 3, 71, etc. Pages are missing. Random passages are duplicated over and over--and it starts in the middle of a sentence. Charts, graphs, pictures, etc, are too small to look at or read. Definitions for vocab will cut out in the middle of a sentence and you cannot find the rest of it. Even though the College Board endorses this as a good pick for an AP Government class, I would suggest another book, or this in print--unless the print version is as screwed up as this one.

This book is outline very well. Clear and easy to follow and find important terms.

Love the way this textbook is written and set up. It's very easy to understand and even has a website to help with study options!

Great Book. Great condition. Rented the hardcover copy. Love it for online classes!

The book is in rough shape, but renting is the way to go to save money!!

Pages were wet and had been dried. I am disappointed.

Some chapters are very long, but worth the read
